Wildcat Staff

Herbert Hardbarger, Editor
Mr. Mabrey, Sponsor

Betty Kay Cauley, Business Manager
Becky Helper, Ass't. Business Manager

We appreciate the confidence placed in us when we were chosen by our fellow staff members to serve as officers of the 1967 "Wildcat". Although it has been necessary to devote hours of tedious work, we feel that it has been valuable experience for us. We hope that this volume of Wildcat will make you feel our efforts have been worthwhile. It has been possible only with the cooperative staff with which we have had to work.

The "Wildcat" Staff

We the "Wildcat Staff" of 1967 have worked hard with hopes of producing an annual of which you will be proud. We have tried to capture in this yearbook some memorable events of the school year which help us strive toward maturity.

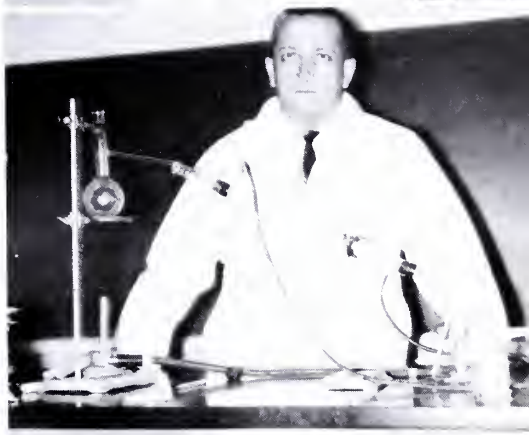
The Millboro "Wildcat" Annual Staff proudly presents the edition 1966-1967 of

"The Wildcat"

To Coach Otis O. Mabrey We Dedicate The 1967 "Wildcat"

Ever faithful as a friend, teacher, annual sponsor, and coach, he is. Yet never does he tire. He spends endless hours chauffeuring the annual staff on route to get ads and even more time on drawing pages to go into our yearbook.

To find an answer to our problems, who do we first consider as being capable of solving them? Who gives up quiet evenings in his trailer to come to the gym to drill his "boys" to make the school proud of the team? What man literally worries his head off about the yearbook until the final copy is returned and sold? None other than Mr. Mabrey. What would we do without him?



School Principal

To The Students Of Millboro High

You are important. Your life is important. Your accomplishments and influences while at Millboro can be masterpieces painted upon history, or they can be as precipitation that comes and goes without much notice.

I shall always cherish the opportunity of being your principal. Your life while at Millboro has a rare opportunity of being watched carefully by many -- your devoted teachers and unforgettable friends, your parents and the administration. Make this life one of which we shall be proud.

To each of you may God's blessings be plentiful, and may you strive to be worthy of them.

Your principal,

Safety Patrol

The Safety Patrol assists the bus drivers in providing safe transportation for each student transported to and from school throughout the school year. The full co-operation of all students is respectively requested.

The Safety Patrol members are as follows:

Janet Adams	Ron Forbes
Teresa Reese	George Stanley
Carol Newcomb	Lynn Ellen Plecker
Tom McRoberts	Jim Stanley
Joyce Grimm	Jean Whitson
Rhonda Matheny	Sue Berry
Dennis Cauley	Joe Grimm

Mr. Lambuth Nutter sponsored the Safety Patrol this year. During safety meetings the students of the patrol viewed films of accidents and studied various things that might have prevented accidents. These things contributed to the patrol being more safety-minded than ever before.

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders are made up of amateurs but have learned to work together as an organized group. They have begun to realize a well organized group cannot be reached to perfection unless they are willing to put forth their best at all times. We feel that no squad could have tried harder to cheer our boys on and represent good school spirit than these girls. This year may be tagged as a stepping stone for this season's Junior Varsity Cheerleaders for they are setting their heights higher and they plan to support their boys twice as much next year as a fan if not as a cheerleader.

From the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders we say; "To you BIG CATS, we wish you luck throughout all your seasons to come!"
